

Improving Behaviour & Learning, National Conference

NISIM
Training & Consultancy

Leeds: 5 February 2020

London: 6 February 2020

Birmingham: 11 February 2020

Cardiff: 5 March 2020

Did You Know?

Persistent disruptive behaviour is the primary reason for exclusions, causing 28.4% of fixed period exclusions and 35.6% of permanent exclusions. This has continued to rise over the past 5 years!

Data and statistics sourced from The Department of Education (July 2018)

Save £30

per delegate on bookings made before
1 November 2019

Key reasons to attend:

- Create a whole-school culture based on relationships and values;
- Implement effective ways to help support students with challenging behaviour;
- Develop strategies to reduce low-level disruptions;
- Effective ways to gain parental engagement to improve behaviour;
- Understand Ofsted's new framework for behaviour (England venues only);
- Consider ways to help reduce exclusions;
- Look at ways to get staff skilled up and on board;

Key Speakers Include:

John Rees

Education
Consultant

Nicola S Morgan

International Behaviour
Management Consultant,
Teacher & Author

bookings@nsmtc.co.uk

02920193162

